

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

Gold, Stocks, and Markets—The New Sanitary Commission—Great Coal Sale—The Collapsed Insurance Company—Minor Items, Etc.

Special Correspondence of The Evening Telegraph.

New York, March 1.

Gold opens quiet to-day at 157; Exchange, 156; Money easy at 7 1/2. Government Stocks in good demand and steady. Foreign rates. There is some little activity in railway shares. Freight engagements light, with 600 vessels of all kinds in port. There is a better inquiry for the leading articles of breadstuffs. Sugar, coffee, cocoa, and bacon are in request. Wool, beef, petroleum, oils, hides, cotton, and pork are freely offered at lower rates, with small demand.

On the occasion of the retirement from office of Mr. William S. McMillan, Treasurer of the Metropolitan Police Board, the forty-two captains of the Metropolitan Police Districts assembled at headquarters, yesterday, and took their final oaths of office. Subsequently, at a meeting of which Superintendent McMillan was chairman, and Inspector Carpenter secretary, Inspectors Dicks and Fols and Captains Todey, Wagoner, and Spelman were appointed a committee to draw up and cause to be banderily endorsed and presented to Mr. McMillan, a series of resolutions expressive of the sense of the Police Captains of the Metropolitan District.

The committee appointed yesterday by the Board of Supervisors to investigate the charges of corruption made against Joseph F. Daly, its secretary, met yesterday afternoon, but owing to the absence of Mr. Daly, who was not prepared with his evidence, the meeting was adjourned until Friday, at 2 P. M. Mr. Daly obtained a mandamus by application to the Supreme Court, compelling the committee against whom the charges are brought, to hold their meeting on Monday next. Clerk of the Board of Supervisors that they may be open to the public according to law.

In the case of the Inland Insurance Company, already reported, Mr. John K. Hise, of this city, was yesterday appointed Receiver, and filed bonds in the sum of $25,000. Mr. John E. Brown, Receiver of the Inland Insurance Company, already reported, as Mr. E. A. Stambaugh, a former President of the Company, has also been appointed Receiver. It is believed that Mr. Hise will doubtless be a conflict as to who has a right to act in the premises.

An alternative mandamus was yesterday granted by Justice Hise, of the Supreme Court, on the petition of Joseph F. Daly against the Board of Supervisors. The motion is made to compel this Board to allow an adjournment of the meeting, relative to the expenses of the new Court House now in course of construction. The Court decided the Board must open their books for inspection, or show cause on Monday next why they should not do so.

The representatives of the various Workingmen's Unions of this city assembled at Clinton Hall last evening, and signed their readiness to aid the House Painters' Union in their strike, which they intend to make on Monday next for a reduction of their hours of labor to eight hours a day. The meeting was addressed by Messrs. G. P. Taylor, John Reed, Fisher, Howard Whitefield, D. S. Griffin, William Handing, Vincent N. Lecompte, Irving and Emma.

At the sale of Scranton coal yesterday, prices were again much lower. Scranton coal sold for $3.40 to $3.45; grate, $2.40 to $2.45; lump, $2.25 to $2.30; steam, $2.40 to $2.50. At the January sale, stove coal sold for $2.60 to $2.75; grate, $1.75 to $1.85; lump, $1.60 to $1.70. It is believed that the Company would continue their sales monthly, no matter what the price might be.

At Rialto Hall, in East Broadway, an interesting lecture was delivered by the Rev. Mr. J. H. Koren, of the Norwegian Synod at Decorah, on the Norwegian settlements in the West. The Norwegian population, which is rapidly increasing in that State, is quite numerous, and much is being done in the way of erecting churches and school-houses among them. In the city of Decorah, the Norwegian congregation has been formed in connection with the Norwegian Synod.

Patrick Kelly and Thomas Collins, two waiters employed in Taylor's Saloon, corner of Franklin street and Broadway, quarreled on Tuesday evening, and Kelly assailed Collins in the back with a knife, wounding him slightly. The assailant was committed for trial.

During a quarrel between Aloozo Brown and Edward Shaw, at the latter's residence, on East river, Brown knocked down his opponent with a shove, inflicting serious injuries. Shaw was conveyed to Bellevue Hospital, and his assailant was locked up.

The police captains of New York and Brooklyn were called together, yesterday, by Superintendent Kennedy, and advised of the amendments to the Metropolitan Health Law. They were ordered to be prepared to respond at once with any report which the new Health Commission—which is to organize to-day—may demand at their hands.

THE BRITISH PROVINCES.

More Bank Burglaries—Police Officers and Aldermen Charged with Being Accomplices of the Thieves—Sensational Revelations of the Canadian Fiscal Policy—The British Provincial Government in Council, Etc.

TORONTO, February 26.—Canada is on the eve of another Fenian scare that promises to be more widespread than any of those that have taken place this winter. It is well known that the Catholic Bishop of Toronto has expressed his willingness to give a cover for raiders in the province, which herefore has been denounced, shall make the usual display on St. Patrick's day, and it is believed that all over the province the Irish element will exhibit open hostility on that day.

Indeed, some assert that this is the day fixed upon for General Sweeney to strike—that his plan of attack is to send small raiding parties against Canada on the 17th of March, to cause a diversion and attract the attention of the British troops in Canada, while with his main force he invades New Brunswick, and effects a lodgment on the sea coast. The Government officials here profess to believe that the Canadian Irish on St. Patrick's day will make a demonstration of a thrice-doubtful nature as a cover for raiders on the border, and that Sweeney will make the lower province his real point of attack. As a protective measure, the loyal Orangemen of the country are arming to assist the Government, and a lively time may be looked for.

To a family with the power of the military of Canada does seem reasonable that Sweeney could not accomplish much here now; but New Brunswick can be reached without crossing rivers and lakes, and with the small force under the command of the Fenian leader, the difficulty of obtaining troops in the winter and spring from Canada and England, she would be unable to offer much resistance. There was a time when Sweeney might have taken Canada, but he allowed it to slip by. That he and his countrymen are working for a better future, I have no doubt; but Canada is no longer accessible. It is impossible to any force the Fenians can raise. If Sweeney proposes to make a lodgment in a British colony on this continent it must be via the Maine frontier. No Fenian can it be done by the St. Lawrence, where the force is already breaking up, and where thirty or forty thousand men can be thrown against him in a few hours.

Last summer, you will recollect, an Alderman of Hamilton, Canada West, ran away to avoid trial for complicity with burglars and pickpockets. I came out then that Sergeant Major McDowell, of the Toronto police force, was in some way an accomplice in the Hamilton robbery, besides Hamilton policemen who were dismissed from office. McDowell, however, escaped punishment, the evidence not being sufficient to convict him. Notwithstanding the breaking up of the Hamilton gang, burglaries and kindred robberies were numerous. In Toronto other hauls made was one at the Gore Bank, Galt, which was robbed by a fellow styled "Bristol Bill" and his confederates. This gang was also broken up, and some of the operators arrested. But the most astounding part is, yet to come.

A prisoner in the Toronto jail on Saturday expressed a desire to make an affidavit. An attorney named Drott was called, and an affidavit made implicating in the Gore Bank robbery, besides Bristol Bill, Dr. Davis and Gustaf, the latter of whom was last fall accused of having poisoned and attempted to rob a Mr. McKinnon, in Toronto. Gustaf then fled to New York, where he has relatives, and was surrendered to the Canadian authorities under the extradition treaty. Besides Davis and Gustaf, who it is alleged made accomplices of Bristol Bill, it appears that McDowell and other Toronto police, for a consideration, kept the burglars posted upon efforts made for their arrest, and McDowell, it is claimed, secreted Bristol Bill for weeks in his house in this city. It is also charged in the affidavit that several City Detectives, and two Aldermen, one of whom is in the habit of presiding sometimes as Police Magistrate, were in the pay of the bank robbers, and received large money considerations as their share.

All the contents of the affidavit have not leaked out yet—the local papers only connect the police with the transaction, but enough is known to show the belief that respectable ex-aidmen of the city have prostituted their office to the acquisition of lucre.—N. Y. Herald.

FLIGHT OF SERGEANT MAJOR McDOWELL—ARREST OF PATROL SERGEANT MACE.

From the Toronto Globe, February 27.

Our article of yesterday morning was enough to show the public that something of a startling character had taken place in this city, and they will not, therefore, wonder that other facts of an equally startling nature are about to be unveiled. It is needless to state that Sergeant Major McDowell, formerly an officer of the city police department, was the party referred to as secretly conniving with Bristol Bill. On Saturday night, at eleven o'clock, McDowell received information that Captain Nicoll, of Hamilton, intended to arrest him before two o'clock next morning. He was, therefore, hurriedly packed up, and fled to his own residence, where he was, at present, in hiding. He was, however, discovered by a patrolman named Mace, who arrested him on Monday morning.

Mace was found at his own residence, and immediately allowed himself to be taken into custody. He is arrested on a charge of aiding and abetting the late bank robbers, inasmuch as he knew the location of Bristol Bill when he was secreted in McDowell's house, and was present at an oyster supper given by Jim Brown at Bristol Bill's house on Bishop's street, in company with Brown, Robert and Benoit, two of the late robbers, who is also in custody. It is said that while at supper Bristol Bill tapped at an outside window and laughingly said, "Beys, are you eating at my expense?" referring to the proceeds of the Pittsburgh bank burglary.

Mace declares that he never heard any such words used, and that he never had the slightest knowledge of Bristol Bill. Dr. Davis, who has made portions of these revelations, and young Mulvaney, formerly a bartender at an intimate saloon, in the city, will be taken up to Galt this morning, where the case will be tried. Dr. Gustaf will also be placed on his trial as soon as permission is received from the Washington authorities, Galt being extradited for administering poisonous drugs.

THE STATE PRISONER.

Jeff Davis on National Salutes, the President's Veto and Other Topics—He is Growing Gariboldi and Communitarian Again, and indulges in Recollections of His Better Days—An Interesting Letter, Etc.

FORTRESS MONROE, February 27.—"I see the Government naval steamer Comanora, on the anniversary of Washington's birthday, fired a gun for all the States, North and South," remarked Jeff Davis afterwards to the officer of the day. "It is strange the Administration," he continued, "did not issue an order to ignore the States of the Confederacy."

The subject of the quondam august rule of the Confederacy, though of no special importance, shows this much at least, that his once busy brain is keenly on the alert to note passing events and make comments upon them. In his further observations, he gave credit to President Johnson for his recognition of the late rebellious States, of whom, from first to last, he has always spoken in terms of highest praise. He informed that since he has been in his further observations, he gave credit to President Johnson for his recognition of the late rebellious States, of whom, from first to last, he has always spoken in terms of highest praise.

FOURTH EXERCISES

President Johnson Pardons a Counterfeiter.

The Whereabouts of Miss A. E. Surratt.

Our Special Despatches.

WASHINGTON, March 1.

Executive Clemency.—Yesterday the President pardoned John Boals, of Michigan, convicted of having counterfeited fractional currency in his possession with the intention of passing it, and sentenced to five years imprisonment.

Miss Annie E. Surratt.—The story about that Miss Annie E. Surratt has entered a convent is not true. She is living with the family of Captain Ben. Gwinn, in Prince George's County, Md.

Obituary.—General Howard received to-day, from his Assistant Commissioner in Florida, intelligence of the death of Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel Harry M. Stinson, who was recently detailed to report to Colonel Osborne for duty on his staff. Colonel Stinson served gallantly during the war, receiving a shot through the lung, which was the indirect cause of his death. He entered the service as a private in General Howard's regiment, the 6th Maine, and for meritorious service was promoted as an agent to the Freedmen's Bureau, where he rendered valuable service up to the time of his death.

The Paris Exposition.—Mr. J. C. Derby, United States Agent for the Paris Exposition of 1867, has been in attendance on Congress for several days, to explain to members the necessity of prompt action if an appropriation is to be made, as the utmost limit of time for applications of space is near at hand. Senator Sumner and Governor Banks, the Chairmen of Foreign Relations in each House, having the subject in charge, are urging prompt and favorable action. More than 1200 articles from all the loyal States have been received by the General Agent in New York.

The Internal Revenue Laws.—The Ways and Means Committee have a bill in readiness to report to the House, in which several very important amendments to the internal revenue laws are proposed. Everything in Schedule A of the present act is to be struck out and exempt from taxation save bills, tables and carriages worth $500 and over. The present tax upon coal is to be removed. The tax on incomes is to be so far modified as to raise the amount exempted from $600 to $1000, with $200 additional allowed on rentals or home-steads. On all amounts of incomes above $1000 a uniform tax of five per centum is to be levied.

But the most important provision of the bill is the levying of a tax of five cents per pound on all cotton brought to market. The Committee are justified in their conclusion that this will net an enormous revenue, and at the same time prove less onerous than almost any other tax now levied. The Committee are a unit in these new features of the bill, and so far as the sentiments of leading members have been canvassed, their adoption by Congress is deemed quite certain.

A False Report.—Brigadier-General C. H. Howard, Assistant Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau for the District of Columbia, in the following statement gives the lie direct to the silly and unfounded paragraph in the Herald of Monday last:—

The only grounds for the astounding announcement of the New York Herald, of the reopening of the slave trade by the Freedmen's Bureau, are the operations of the employment office in securing places, on written contract, anywhere in the United States, for the unemployed destitute freed people in this city. Sixty-three were sent to Maryland, in the winter, after securing their employer and making a fair agreement for good wages. Some have been sent to many of the Northern States in the same manner. A fee of one dollar for every man, and fifty cents for females, is charged to pay current expenses, such as printing blanks, etc. The salaries of the agents in no way depend upon the fees.

COMMENCEMENT.—The Eighteenth Annual Commencement of the Homoeopathic Medical College was held at the Musical Fund Hall this morning. Johnson's Band was in attendance, and delivered the literary exercises with strains of popular music. The ceremonies were opened with prayer by Rev. George Davidson, of the First Presbyterian Church, and closed by Adolph Seppel, M. D., Professor of Materia Medica. The following is a list of the graduating class, with the title of their thesis:—

SUPPOSED THEFT OF CLOTHING.—Sarah Adams was arrested this morning about 10 o'clock, in Shippen street, above Seventh, with a basket of clothing in her possession. It was evident from Sarah's appearance that said clothing was not her legitimate property, and it was certainly an unusual hour to be taking home washing. Sarah could give no satisfactory account about herself or the clothing, so Alderman Titterton committed her this morning, and the clothing awaits an owner.

A STORY IN SMILES.—"Poor as a church mouse" was Joe Brown when first he left his native town, "While all his friends stood by "Cool as cucumbers" to his view; "But he returned "rich as a Jew," "And they seemed "good as pie," "Froud as a peacock," he felt big, "While each one snarled, "like a stuck pig," "To see Joe "like a lord" arrayed, "In a fine suit, at Bennett's made. "One coat of clothing in the largest and sweet complete in this city, surpassed by none in material, style and fit, and sold at prices guaranteed lower than the lowest.
